Home of Rutherford B. Hayes

Special thanks are extended to Leslie Sumner for her many drawings featured in this coloring book.

Rutherford Birchard Hayes

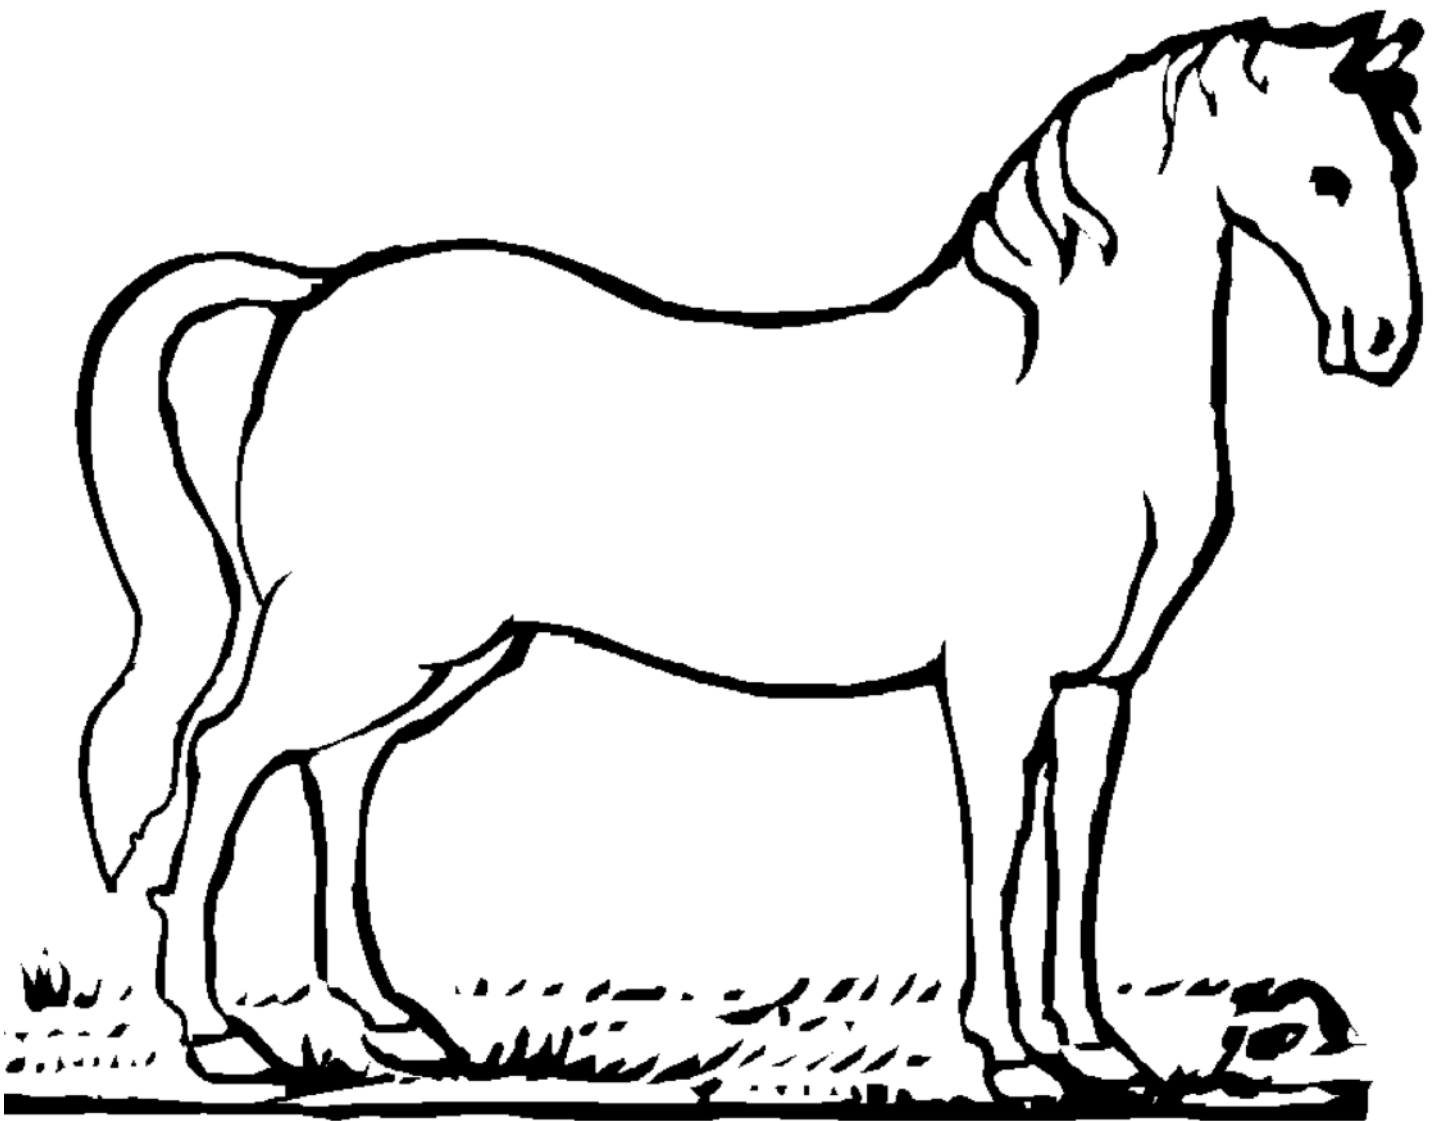

Rutherford B. Hayes was the nineteenth President of the United States of America. He and his family moved to Spiegel Grove in 1881.

Colonel Hayes

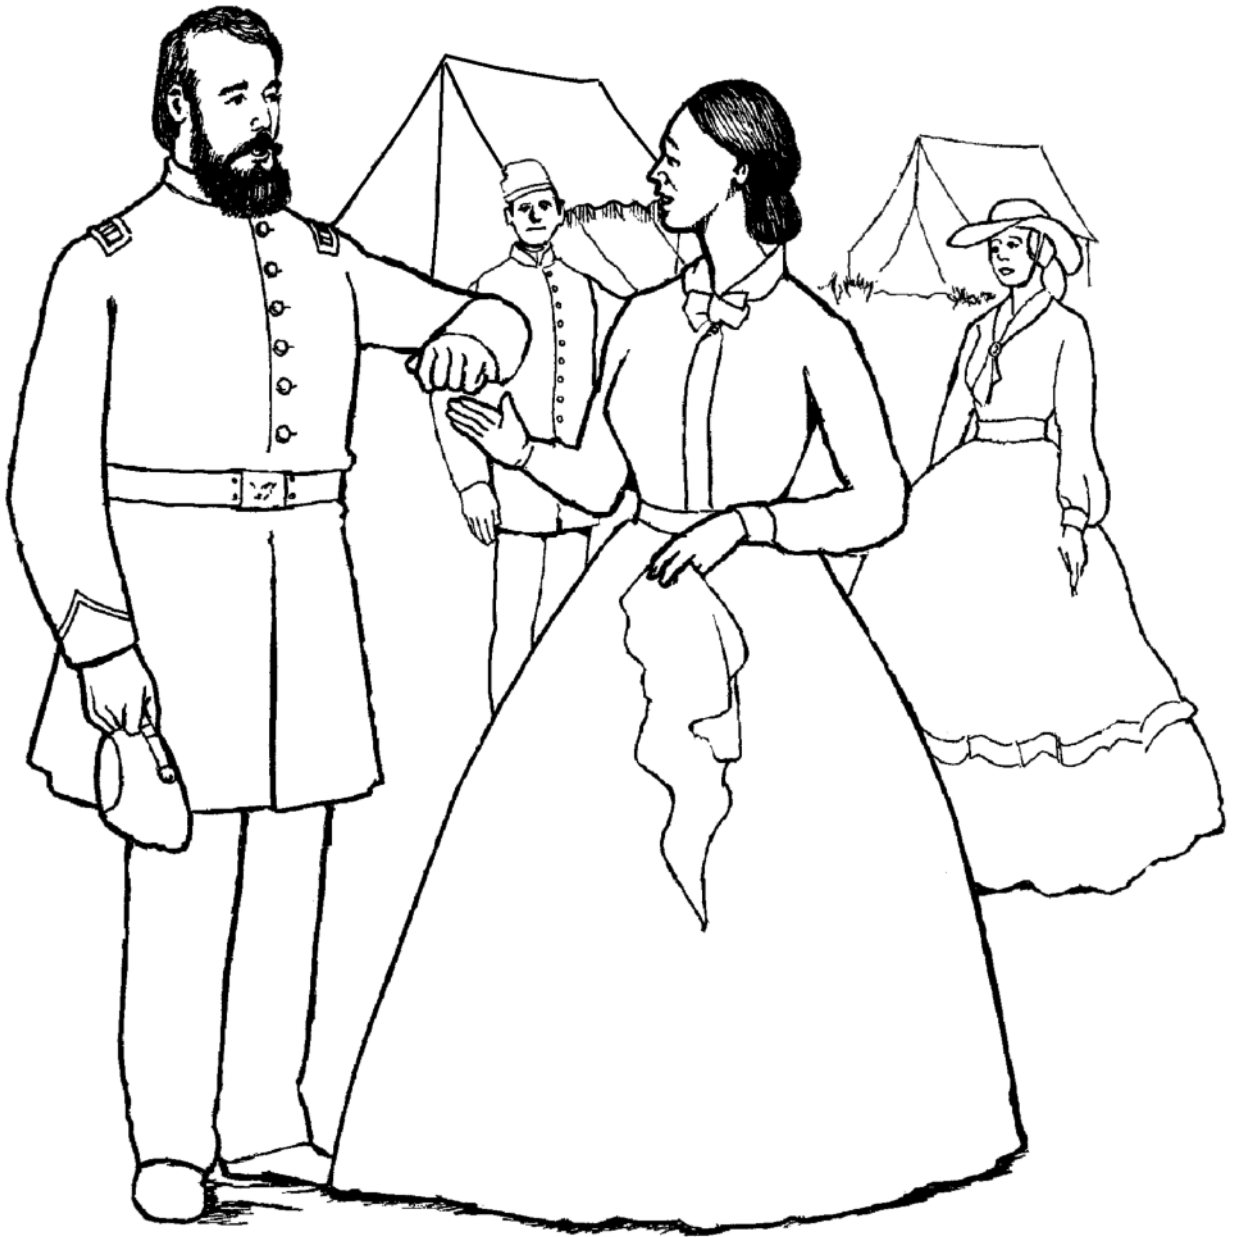

Mr. Hayes was a brave soldier during the Civil War. He was proud to be called "the good Colonel." By the end of the war he achieved the rank of Brigadier General.

Old Whitey was President Hayes' favorite horse. He is buried behind the President's tomb in Spiegel Grove.

Mrs. Hayes

Mrs. Lucy Hayes visited her husband during the Civil War at his camp in West Virginia.

Lucy Webb Hayes

Mrs. Hayes was the first President's wife to be called "First Lady."

The White House

Mrs. Hayes liked to have many guests when she was First Lady of the White House.

White House Easter Egg Roll

The President and Mrs. Hayes invited children from the Washington, D.C., area to an Easter Egg Roll on the White House lawn. It has become an annual event at the White House and also at Spiegel Grove.

Today's White House Easter Egg Roll

Hundreds of children enjoy the fun of the White House Easter Egg games each year.

Lucy and the Pigeons

Mrs. Hayes raised pigeons and chickens at Spiegel Grove, as well as many other animals.

Spiegel Grove

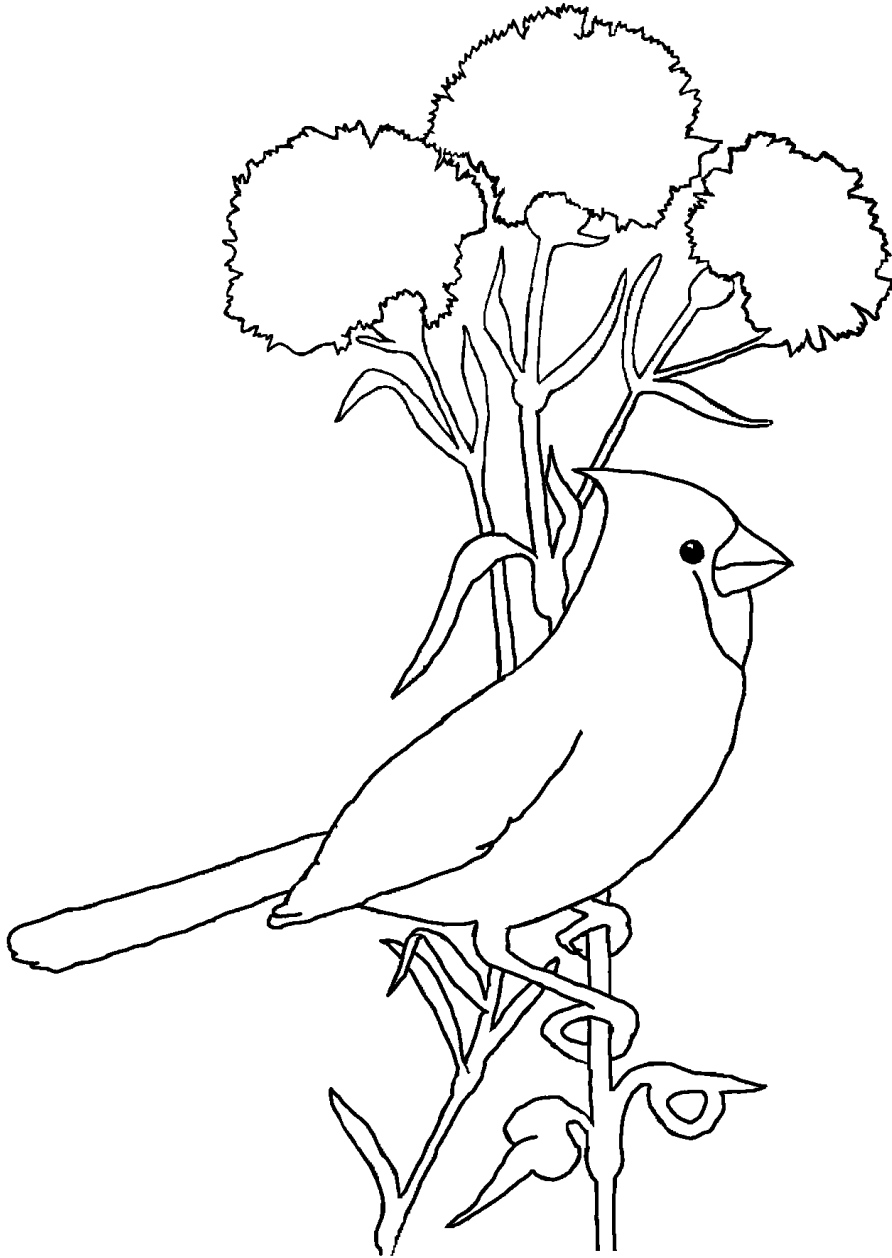

President Hayes loved trees and planted many around his home in Spiegel Grove.

Spiegel Grove's Squirrels

Many squirrels live in Spiegel Grove. They gather nuts for the winter and play in the trees.

State symbols of Ohio

The Cardinal is the state bird of Ohio, and the red carnation is the state flower. Although Cardinals always are red. Carnations come in many other colors.
