Tickets available for Music in the Parlor

A mother-daughter harp duo will perform at Music in the Parlor on May 21 in the historic Hayes Home at the Rutherford B. Hayes Presidential Library & Museums. Karen Svane Westgate and Sirka Westgate Schreck will perform from 4 to 5 p.m. in the large parlor of the home, the same area where President Rutherford and First Lady Lucy Hayes entertained guests in the late 1800s. Tickets are $12. Seating is limited, and reservations are required. They can be made by calling 419-332-2081, ext. 238. Music in the Parlor is sponsored by Mosser Construction.

Learn to make a family tree at genealogy class

Learn how to make a family tree on Ancestry.com during a genealogy class from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. May 13 in the museum/library building. Head Librarian Becky Hill and Dustin Austin will give an overview on how to create an online family tree with an Ancestry.com subscription. Audience participation will be encouraged. Please register before class by calling Hill at 419-332-2081 or emailing her at bhill@rbhayes.org. Cost is $10 and can be paid the day of the class or online at rbhayes.org. Genealogy classes are sponsored by RootsMagic.

Vintage base ball season starts May 21

The Spiegel Grove Squires, the vintage base ball team at the Rutherford B. Hayes Presidential Library & Museums, start their season May 21 with an away game at 1 p.m. at Elmwood at the Springs in Green Springs during Civil War Days. The Squires will play the Stemtown Stinkers. For the full Squires season schedule, visit rbhayes.org. The Squires are sponsored by Wright Leather Works, LLC.

GroveFest: Nature at the Grove is June 24

See live animals, participate in hands-on activities and more at GroveFest: Nature at the Grove on June 24 at Spiegel Grove, the grounds of the Rutherford B. Hayes Presidential Library & Museums. This FREE annual nature event is from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. The event highlights Spiegel Grove, which is a state park and the estate of President Rutherford and First Lady Lucy Hayes, who loved nature and the outdoors. In addition to gardening on the property, the couple dabbled in farming and raised chickens and cows. Parking is off site only. For parking information, call 800-998-7737 or visit rbhayes.org.

Tentative schedule of events:
- 10 a.m. — Nature organizations will open booths offering activities and food. Wagon rides will be available for a fee until 2 p.m.
- 11 a.m. — Back to the Wild Rehabilitation Center of Castalia will give a live animal presentation.
- Noon — Rimelspach Farms will give a corn-grilling demonstration.
- 1 p.m. — Toledo Zoo will give a live animal presentation.
- 2 p.m. — Booths close.

Museum Store volunteers needed

The Museum Store is in need of volunteer clerks for the 1 to 5 p.m. shift Wednesdays and Thursdays. Duties include checking out purchases for visitors, stocking the store area and other tasks assigned by the visitor services manager. Tasks are performed while sitting and standing.

Save the date - Mark your calendars - this year’s Volunteer Celebration at 12:30 p.m. Sunday, July 16. More details to come.

Thank you for your time! - Our volunteer hours for January, February and March totaled 1,214. That’s 110 hours more than this time last year. Thanks for being generous with your time and talents!

May birthdays - Our best wishes for a happy birthday go to Linda Geyman, Mary Ottney and Marilu Waleryszak.
