Second Generation

2. Adam HURD, (-1) died between 1671 and 1673. "On 30 June 1671 John Beach purchases four acres of meadow for Adam Hurd and John Hurd Jr. (1:117). On 29 April 1673 Nathaniel Porter purchased from John Hurd Junior "all his and his father Adam Hurds swamp Division" (1:215). Thus it appears that Adam Hurd died between 1671 and 1673."

1. History and Genealogies of Ancient Windsor, Connecticut (1891) by Henry R. Stiles Note 1: "Evidence to date suggests that Adam(1) Hurd, with brother John(1) Hurd, may have arrived in Massachusetts about 1635 and in October of that year joined the band of 60 colonists who went overland from Boston and made the first settlements in Connecticut at Windsor, Hartford and Wethersfield. Have found no record of such arrival, nor of their being in Massachusetts. There seems to be no record of Adam(1) in Windsor, but records there of 1640 show that John(1) Hurd owned a lot which he had sold. Have found no birth, death or marriage records for Adam(1); probate and land records are yet to be checked." TBH

Note 2: "Letter 4 Feb 1951 Mrs. Clara M. Allen to TBH. I have not verified this data. TBH."
~ Adam Hurd born 1611 Somersetshire England, died Stratford Conn. Married 1640 Hannah Bartram or Bertram of Stratford.
"There are know errors in the above; all should be verified." TBH

Note 3: Hurd "Adam, brother John, probably came to Stratford from Windsor. Concerning him see Note 4: "Hurd, Adam, came with his brother John to Stratford, among or with the first settlers, in 1639. He married Hannah, daughter of John Bartram, so said." They had a son. "John who is called Junior, and John Hurd, Sen., is said by the town clerk to be his uncle, which was no doubt true." (Orcutt, 1886. pg 1225)

Note 5: "Adam Hurd had two house lots in Stratford, Nos. 31 and 35." (Orcutt, 1886. pg 111)

Note 6: Adam Hurd owned lots in Stratford: No. 18 "in the outfield" and No. 31 "of the Saquestered land". (Jacobus, 1934. pg 56)

Note 7: "Hurd, Adam, Brother of John, Sr., is said to have had wife Hannah." (Jacobus, 1930. pg 312)

Note 8: 14 May 1669 Adam Hurd and John Hurd, Jr. as members of the First Church of Stratford signed a petition to the General Court of Connecticut. (Cothren, 1854. pg 129)

Note 9: "Hurd, Adam, Stratford, br. of John the first, lived there 1650 to 69, had wife Hannah and son John." "John, Windsor, among first settlers but not, like most of them from Dorchester." (Savage, 1860. pg 505)

Adam HURD and ? ? were married. "Though it is wrong, Adam's wife is usually spoken of as Hannah, and as the daughter of John Bartram of Stratford. Adam's wife probably came to Stratford with him since full home-lots were seldom assigned to unmarried men, but her identity is probably completely unknown, even her first name. She certainly was not John Bartram's daughter Hannah was born at Stratford, 28 June 1668 and was not yet six when Adam died! The connection with John Bartram probably derives from the probate of his estate. John(2) Hurd Jr. [Adam(1)] and his wife settled this estate...Administrators were usually men. Since John Jr.'s wife was a party to the settlement, the connection with John Bartram may have been through her..."

"In a complicated agreement dated 16 March 1671...Adam(1) Hurd's remaining lands plus lands held by John(2) Hurd Jr. in his own right by purchase are now to be held jointly by both men and to pass to son John at Adam's death...signed by Adam Hurd, John hurd and hannah hurd...the conclusion that Adam(1) Hurd had a wife Hannah seems to have come from this record, but two facts indicate otherwise. First, all of Adam(1) Hurd's lands, including both home-lots, went to his son John(2), with no provision for any wife of Adam, not even the usual one that the son take care of her during her widowhood. Second, if this were only transfer of Adam's rights to John, then only Adam's wife should sign, but John is granting rights in his own lands to Adam. Therefore, both wives should sign, but we find only "hanna." The conclusion must be that Adam's wife was dead, that "hanna" is John's wife Anna, and that Adam(1) Hurd's wife is entirely unknown. The spellings Anna and Hannah...are known to have been used interchangeably."

Third Generation

4. John HURD”’”””’ (Adam-2, -1) died before 1690 in Woodbury, Litchfield Co., CT ?. "John(1) Hurd appears in early Stratford Ct. records as John Hurd, Jr., to distinguish him from his uncle John(2) Hurd called John Hurd, Sr. On 3 Mar 1688/9 Adam Hurd deeded to his son John Adam's 2 home lots and 6 other parcels of land in Stratford (Wilcoxson. pg 93-94). On 14 May 1669 Adam(1) and John(2)
signed a petition to the General Court on behalf of the First Church of Stratford (Cothren, Vol 1&2. pg 129). John became a member of this church on 30 Apr 1676 (Jacobus, The American Genealogist, Vol. 13. Stratford First Church Records). In 1678 he sold a home lot in Stratford to Richard Blackleash (Patterson) and on 6 Sep 1678 "for a mill and other considerations" he purchased from Jeremiah Judson (brother of his wife's first husband) for 140 pounds a "mill situate in Woodbury" (Hurd, Elmira. Deeds). He probably moved to Woodbury at about this time where he became the town's "first regular miller" (Cothren, Vol 1&2. pg 66). About 1680 he erected his house in Woodbury now owned and preserved by the Old Woodbury Historical Society (Old Woodbury Historical Society to TBH). On 28 Aug 1681 the town granted him accommodations (land and mill rights) to build a grist mill on the Pomperaug River, which he erected just west of his house (Cothren, Vol 1&2. pg 67). He and his wife joined the Woodbury Church 29 Apr 1688 (Cothren, Vol 1&2. pg 817). His death seems to have occurred in late 1690. On 20 Dec 1690 an agreement respecting his estate was made by his widow Anna Hurd and his surviving children: Joseph, Benjamin, Ebenezer and Sarah Hurd (Jacobus, The American Genealogist, Vol. 30. Tuttle Judson Hurd). In 1691, "Hurd having deceased", the town transferred the mill rights to his heirs, but they "not fulfilling", the rights were awarded 15 Feb 1691/2 to others (Cothren, Vol 1&2. pg 68).

Seth received from "his Hond Father's Estate" a small amount of personal property, 1/3 of his father's house and barn, and 7 acres of adjoining land. This suggests that he may have been living with or near his parents when his father died in 1790.

The life story of Jay Montgomery Hurd is described in detail in his long autobiography.  He was born and raised in Georgetown, Madison County, NY.  At the instance of his mother's brother Dr. Silas Hamilton he made a trip to Greene County, IL in 1830, and the following year he moved there with his parents where both died that fall. 2263  i.  Marion von Dieden GARDNER  It seems very likely that the "Marion von Dieden" listed as a daughter of George Gardner and Ellen Hurd in the letter from Opal Fitchhorn Johnson to TBH received 31 Oct 1959 is actually a misspelling of "Miriam Ellen Gardner von Dreden" who was a daughter of George E. Gardner and granddaughter of George Gardner and Ellen Hurd. Therefore, there would be no Marion, daughter of George Gardner and Ellen Hurd.
