

Rutherford B. Hayes Presidential Library & Museums 2019 Calendar of Events

APRIL 2019

Now – May 27, 2019 – Special exhibit “A Family of Service: The Hayeses in World War I.” In 1861, 38-year-old Rutherford B. Hayes enlisted in the Union Army during his country’s most desperate hour. Writing to a friend of his military experience, he said: “I think I have never enjoyed any period of my life as much as the last three months. The risks, hardships, separation from family and friends are balanced by the notion that I am doing what every man, who possibly can, ought to do, leaving the agreeable side of things as clear profit.” Hayes passed this belief in the value of service onto his children and grandchildren. When the United States again sorely needed men to serve during World War I, one of his sons and six of his grandsons answered the call. “A Family of Service: The Hayeses in World War I” will explore America’s involvement in the “Great War” through the eyes of the Hayes family. Hours are 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Saturday and noon to 5 p.m. Sunday with the exception of holiday hours and closings. The Hayes Presidential Library & Museums is closed on Mondays in January, February and March. Admission is included with the price of a regular museum ticket. Members are admitted for free. This exhibit is open through May 27, 2019. Sponsored by City of Fremont; Fraternal Order of Eagles, Fremont, OH Aerie 712; Exchange Club of Fremont; Fremont Lions Club; Fremont Rotary; Kiwanis Club of Fremont; and Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 2947. This program is made possible in part by Ohio Humanities, a state affiliate of the National Endowment for the Humanities. Any views, findings, conclusions or recommendations expressed in this publication/exhibition/program/website do not necessarily reflect those of the National Endowment for the Humanities.

Now through Sunday, Oct. 6, 2019 – Special exhibit “Demon Rum & Cold Water: The Two Sides of Temperance.” Before Prohibition, there was temperance. In reaction to increasing consumption of alcohol in the 1800s, many people began to express concerns about the social effects of drinking. The Temperance Movement gained popularity in the 1850s and became a significant moral and political force by 1900. This exhibit will present the causes for temperance, the role of its proponents in American society, and how the Hayeses were shaped by and helped shape the movement. Access to the exhibit is included with regular admission. Members are admitted for free. This exhibit is open through Sunday, Oct. 6, 2019. “Finding Her Voice” is made possible in part by Ohio Humanities, a state affiliate of the National Endowment for the Humanities. “Finding Her Voice” is sponsored by title sponsor the Reed Fund of The Toledo Community Foundation and major sponsor ProMedica Memorial Hospital. “Demon Rum & Cold Water” is sponsored by Walmart-Fremont; Walmart-Port Clinton.

Saturday, April 20, 2019 – Hayes Easter Egg Roll. 2 - 3:30 p.m. Free. Kids ages 3-10 are invited to participate in a variety of egg games that replicate the famous White House Easter Egg Roll started by President Rutherford B. Hayes. Prizes are awarded in six age categories, and each child receives a balloon and treats. Admission is three hard-boiled colored eggs for use in the egg games. Children are also invited to participate in face painting, corn-hole games, craft activities and visits with the Easter Bunny. Sponsored by Root’s Poultry & Welly’s Horseradish.

Sunday, April 21, 2019 – Easter. All facilities closed.

Wednesday, April 24, 2019 – Presidential History Book Club. Noon to 1 p.m. All are invited to read and discuss books about the American presidency at this free book club. This month, the club is reading “Coolidge” by Amity Shlaes. Participants can bring their lunch. Sponsored by The Fremont Co.

Buzbee has donated copies of his RootsMagic7 CD and book to those who become a member of the Hayes Presidential Library & Museums at the $100 or more level. Anyone who becomes a member at that level on May 5 will receive the book and program, which retail online for $39.95. Additionally, they will receive numerous other benefits – including free admission to the Hayes Presidential Library & Museums, guest passes, discount at the Museum Store, genealogy benefits – that come with being a member at the $100 or more level. Sponsored by RootsMagic.

Sunday, May 5, 2019 - Spiegel Grove Squires away game. 1 and 4 p.m. at the Base Ball Festival hosted by the Eastwood Iron Horses at Caesar's Creek pioneer Village in Waynesville, Ohio. The Spiegel Grove Squires are the vintage base ball team at the Hayes Presidential Library & Museums. The Squires bring to life base ball in the 1860s, when the sport – spelled with two words at the time - became organized with standard rules of play for clubs. Members of the Spiegel Grove Squires are volunteers. They have studied and learned the methods of play used in the 1860s, including playing bare-handed. Players are called ballists, and they wear period-style uniforms and adopt the language of 19th-century base ball during their matches, as games were called during the 1860s. The Squires are sponsored by Wright Leather Works.

Friday, May 10, 2019 – Author talk and book signing. 4 p.m. Free. Paul Kahan, Ph.D., will discuss his book “The Presidency of Ulysses S. Grant: Preserving the Civil War’s Legacy,” which was released in June 2018. In this book, Kahan focuses on the unique political, economic and cultural forces unleashed by the Civil War and how Grant addressed these issues during his tumultuous two terms as chief executive. A timely reassessment, the book sheds new light on the business of politics in the decade after the Civil War and portrays an energetic and even progressive executive whose legacy has been overshadowed by both his wartime service and his administration’s many scandals. Kahan earned his Ph.D. in U.S. history from Temple University. He has written several historical books, including “Eastern State Penitentiary: A History” and “Amiable Scoundrel: Simon Cameron, Lincoln’s Scandalous Secretary of War.”

Saturday, May 11, 2019 – Kids Days @ Hayes. 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Kids can enjoy an obstacle course and relays on the Spiegel Grove grounds. This event was inspired by the Hayes Presidential Library & Museums’ World War I exhibit “A Family of Service: The Hayeses in World War I.” Cost is $3 for kids and grandkids of Hayes Presidential Library & Museums members at the family level and higher and $5 for non-member kids. There is no charge for adults who bring their kids to this program. Kids Days at Hayes (formerly known as Second Saturdays R 4 Hayes) is an interactive, educational program for kids through age 12. Title sponsor is Impact Credit Union. Event sponsor is JG3 Fitness.

Sunday, May 19, 2019 – Music in the Parlor. 4 to 5 p.m. Enjoy a musical performance in the large parlor of the historic Hayes Home, the same area where President Rutherford and First Lady Lucy Hayes entertained their guests in the 19th century. Tickets are $12. Reservations are required and can be made by calling 419-332-2081, ext. 238. Performer to be announced.

Sunday, May 26, 2019 - Spiegel Grove Squires away game. 1 p.m. vs. the Canal Dover Red Legs at the Canal Fulton Festival in Dover, Ohio. Thursday, June 20, 2019 - Frohman Summer Series: Hands-on History, Roller Coaster Session. Pick one of the two sessions offered from 10 a.m. to noon and 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. Free. This program is a three-part series for kids ages 6 through 11. They will use historic photos from the Charles E. Frohman Collection at the Hayes Presidential Library & Museums to gain firsthand knowledge in history through STEM (science, technology, engineering and math) initiatives. During the roller coaster session, students can learn about speed, strength, gravity and other principles of physics and engineering by building a roller coaster using a variety of materials. From 1892 to the present day, coasters have been a top attraction of Cedar Point amusement park for generations. Using the Frohman Collection photos, drawings and documents, students will analyze and build models of the 19th and 20th century coasters, comparing them to today's coasters. Parents are welcome to attend with their kids. Registration is limited to 10 kids per session. Kids can register for one, two or all three of the sessions in this series. Sessions are June 20, July 18 and Aug. 15. Registration is required. Register by calling Nan Card or Julie Mayle at 419-332-2081, ext. 239, or email them at ncard@rbhayes.org or jmayle@rbhayes.org. The roller coaster session is sponsored by Sierra Lobo, Inc.

Sunday, June 23, 2019 – Program on the Daughters of the American Revolution and the application process. 1 p.m. What are the Daughters of the American Revolution, and what is the process to become a member? Find out during this special program. Afterward, the Hayes Presidential Library then will be open from 2 to 3 p.m. to those attending the program so that they can do research. Admission to the program and the library is free. The Daughters of the American Revolution is a national social service organization that promotes history, education and patriotism. Members have a Revolutionary War patriot in their family tree. Patriots do not have to be soldiers. They can be men and women who provided assistance to the war effort. During this program, Heather Reichert, regent of the DAR's Col. George Croghan Chapter, and Kim Knepper, registrar of the DAR's Col. George Croghan Chapter, will share information about the local chapter, what the organization does and what is involved in the application process to join. Hayes Library staff will focus on library resources that might assist in completing the application forms. Emphasis will be placed on materials related to the original 13 colonies. This program will last about an hour and will be followed by a question-and-answer session. RSVPs are requested and should be made by Friday, June 21. RSVP to John Ransom or Sharon Barnett at 419-332-2081, jransom@rbhayes.org or sbarnett@rbhayes.org.

Sunday, Aug. 11, 2019 - Spiegel Grove Squires away games. Noon and 1:30 p.m. vs. the Ohio Village Muffins and German Village 9 at Ohio Village in Columbus. The Spiegel Grove Squires are the vintage base ball team at the Hayes Presidential Library & Museums. The Squires bring to life base ball in the 1860s, when the sport – spelled with two words at the time - became organized with standard rules of play for clubs. Members of the Spiegel Grove Squires are volunteers. They have studied and learned the methods of play used in the 1860s, including playing bare-handed. Players are called ballists, and they wear period-style uniforms and adopt the language of 19th-century base ball during their matches, as games were called during the 1860s. The Squires are sponsored by Wright Leather Works.

Thursday, Aug. 15, 2019 – Frohman Summer Series: Hands-on History, Ever-Changing Lake Erie Session. Pick one of the two sessions from 10 a.m. to noon and 2 to 4 p.m. Free. Through the historic photographs and maps from the Charles E. Frohman Collection, students will learn about the Great Lakes and in particular Lake Erie. They will learn how the lakes were formed and why it is that Lake Erie is the most biologically productive. They will compare firsthand Lake Erie’s current condition and its plant and aquatic life to that of the early 20th century. Using water brought from Lake Erie, students will learn about pollution and how water is filtered, making it free of bacteria and safe for human consumption. They will also gain an understanding of the water cycle by creating closed terrariums. This program is a three-part series for kids ages 6 through 11. They will use historic photos from the Charles E. Frohman Collection, at the Hayes Presidential Library & Museums to gain firsthand knowledge in history through STEM (science, technology, engineering and math) initiatives. Parents are welcome to attend with their kids. Registration is limited to 10 kids per session. Kids can register for one, two or all three of the sessions in this series. Sessions are June 20, July 18 and Aug. 15. Registration is required. Register by calling Nan Card or Julie Mayle at 419-332-2081, ext. 239, or email them at ncard@rbhayes.org or jmayle@rbhayes.org. The Lake Erie session is sponsored by ABC INOAC Exterior Systems, LLC.
